

SECOND ANNUAL YOUNG RESEARCHER CONFERENCE 2017

HOSTED BY: THE ALLIANCE FOR DIVERSITY
IN SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

Join us for a day of mentoring and supporting young researchers through graduate student-focused programs targeting professional development, fostering research interests through talks and posters, career panels and a working lunch.

There will also be a networking reception and featured keynote speaker soon to be announced!

Do not miss this great opportunity to support young researchers and learn more about ADSE! The event is free for all.
